MY YOUTH

by Eduard "Billy" Meier

At the age of five I had my first conscious UFO experience. This was the observation of a great, dislike object. It was on the 2nd of June, 1942, exactly at 9 o'clock in the morning, in Bulach Switzerland. Together with my father I stood behind our house besides a great nut tree and looked eastwards into the sky, like banned and but not sure why. It seemed that there was some sort of unknown voice within me, ordering me to look high over the eastern horizon and to expect something. What to look for was unknown to me, so I just observed the strange desire within me, and begin to search for anything in the azure-blue sky, on this rather warm and beautiful summer morning.

Ten or fifteen minutes may have gone by, before my eye was caught by something quite peculiar. From out of the light blue sky, traveling at a tremendous velocity, a silvery flash shot down, hurled itself like a gigantic metallic arrow over the Eschenmoserberg, exactly in the direction of the 75 meter high reformed church. Stopping just short of the great tower, the silver flash stepped to the right and shot directly towards our house and begin to speed up enormously. Within an instant the speeding flash became a giganticly large and round flat metal disc. The huge disc, measuring about 250 to 300 meters in diameter, then shot in to within 200 meters over our heads, completely noiseless and looking like a fantastic chimera. Then as flashlike as it had appeared in the east, it then flashlike disappeared in the west over the Horagen-wood.

Not understanding, I stood still for a long time, just staring westward after the already disappearing object, while I realized my father was rather perplexed, and stared to the west shaking his head. Although I asked him the how, wherefrom and the why of the flashlike flying disc. He observed my reflection and gave me then only logical answer he could which made since at the time of World War II: "This was Hitler's newest secret weapon".

My fathers answer was to me, even at the age of 5, quite insufficient, and for some too fantastic. On the one hand, old fashion American bombers often flew over our village, dropping their bombs, while on the other hand, quite often German stukas and other hunting machines came over the nearby border, which, in my estimation, were just as primitive as the American bombers, which were often shot or forced down over our village by the Swiss Air Force. None of these facts corresponded with the explanation of my father, who as a straightforward and old fashion type of man himself, had no mind for the development of technology. I however, as a 5 year old was very interested in such things, and effected by the wild and evil war cry heard around the world, which I followed by radio, and on the other hand, by the continuous bomb attacks of the Americans and the often long insidious thunder of the heavy tanks and artillery guns which could be heard for many miles, all day and night, from our village.

It just didn't seem to me, that all of the primitive and murdering of the second World War should even in the smallest way have anything to do with the futuristic disc I saw. I spent a lot of time under the nut tree reflecting on the idea that these two ideas seemed like different worlds rushing together. There had to be another explanation then the one from my father, not just because of my thoughts, but also because the disc I had seen seemed rather familiar to me and I couldn't get the idea out of my head that I had seen discs like these before someplace, during very peaceful circumstances.

My thoughts and reflections led me to begin to watch the sky day and night, while more and more, especially at night, I could see high in the sky, "traveling stars", some large and gigantic, and some smaller. Satellites did not exist then, and I was very sufficiently familiar with the appearance of the bombers and hunter planes. On the other hand these very primitive earthly "flightmachines", were not able to fly at such heights as those speeding and also "sparkling stars", which quite often displayed a zigzag sort of flight pattern that I had never seen in an earthly airplane. Just as I observed the "traveling stars" then, you can still see them today, very high in the sky, 20 to 40 kilometers in altitude, at night in the clear starry heavens. To be sure that you do not mistake satellites for UFO's, it is best to watch during the hours of 10:00 p.m. and 2 a.m., because in this time the earth lays fully in the shadow of the sun, and cannot cast any light on passing satellites to cause them to shine, even though certain "clever" scientists want you to think the contrary. It is during these times the UFO's fly very high in the sky and appear no larger than the stars themselves. Although my first observations of UFO's were alone at night, where I thought of them as "traveling stars", in a short time this changed, as once on a nice and warm summer day I observed to my delight, a spherelike object high in the blue sky, slowing down and coming closer, until I could recognize it to be a round sphere. In a flash it then disappeared, without any noise or conceivable reason, leaving no trace.

In the days to come the daylight observations continued, and then one day I again felt something strange within me. It was similar to a voice somewhere in my head, and was accompanied by unexplainable pictures which drew themselves. This inner voice and the pictures advised my very intensively and continuously, to trouble myself for an answer and to give one. This happened in the late autumn of the year 1942, only a few months before the transgression into my sixth year of age.

This inner voice and pictures were very strange to my thinking, and worried me, because at that time I was still very ignorant about such things, and the thought occurred to me that I was slowly going insane. Because of this I decided to turn to one of our Protestant priests, in the hope he could offer me some help. I found him very ready to help and evidently knowledgeable about these matters, even though I had never spoken to him before. It seemed to me, he was not only well informed, but quite knowledgeable about the UFO matter. He began to advise me about UFO's and the my inner voice and the "inner picture", explained to me that I should try as quickly as possible to trouble myself to give an answer to the continuously calling of the inner voice. I can still remember very well his friendly words which took away my fears: "You need not worry, and know that what you hear and see inside of your head is called telepathy". To my rather astonished and as well blank looking face, he then explained to me in great detail what I should know about telepathy. Besides this, he went on to explain to me many other facts, which I as a five year old boy did not understand very well, but in later years I not only understood completely, but became aware of the love and great help this old clergyman had been to me.

I followed the priests advise. I begin to intensively direct my thoughts on the inner voice which came to me so frequently, and try to answer. And indeed, one day, after making an effort for only a short time I suddenly felt my thoughts somehow making contact somewhere with someone.

The first reaction from the other side was like a gentle and fine laughing, which I heard deep inside of me and felt not only pleasant and relaxing, but delighted me and made me feel calm. The the contact faded away, and I no longer heard a voice or realized any more pictures. Suddenly all was quiet again.

For two years I continued with my simple observations, when in November of 1942 I had a a rather peculiar experience. It happened in the "Langenzingen", behind the Hoeragen-woods in a very far out of the way large meadow area, which was sometime used by glider pilots, when from the clouded sky a pear shaped metallic object sank down and touch the ground. A very old man stepped out of the object and ordered me to come to him. I followed him without a word, and went into his air vehicle, where I quickly realized on the screens that we were already high above the ground. Then just as quickly the air ship returned to the ground and touched down without any feeling. The old man ordered me to walk out, which I did in a rather dreamlike state. Just as soon as I stepped out, I turned and saw the ship rise and disappear straight into the sky at blinding speed, while I just stood there staring in astonishment.

Sunk deep in my thoughts, I started my way home, deliberating whether I should tell anyone about my experiences. I decided to keep silent and not even tell the priest. I lived with my secret and began to keep to myself. Within the next two years my observations led me to another far reaching experience, which left me terrified. Even with the explanation of the priest, I was not aware of the different kinds of telepathy, which frightened me again when, on my birthday February 3rd, 1944 a low sounding voice came to me very strongly and ordered me, to learn, scrutinize and collect knowledge from the transmissions which would be coming to me. I now believed I was finally going mad in my spirit. I did not dare to entrust any of this to my parents, since I knew very well they would not be able to understand me, On the other hand, I didn't trust this inner voice, which was now very clear in my consciousness, because I was of the opinion that this was the voice of delusion, so I tried hard to calm myself. In my fear I again confided to the priest, who listened to my story very patiently and attentively, and told him in the smallest detail, what had happened. Softly the wise man smiled and told me that I had nothing to worry about, because he was very well informed about these things. By regret though he could only teach me so much about these matters. It was necessary that I keep absolutely silent about these matters, since discussing these things was not in the best interest of his profession. He himself had taken a mission as a priest, to work in this capacity to help clear up the truth about religion for the human beings. This was a very slow undertaking for him, as the human beings of my home village were very strong in their belief of God, and because of this quite superstitious also.

"you need not worry, and know that what you hear and see inside of your head is called telepathy"

At the time I didn't understand all of things he was saying, and could not conceive the deeper meaning of his words, until many years later, when I had almost forgotten about the priest. One thing he was able to make me understand very clearly, was that the voice in my consciousness had nothing to do with insanity or delusion, but was related to another kind of telepathy, and was the thoughts of another human being who lives on another world far away in the Universe. The priest explained to me that the new 'thoughts' in my consciousness, were a telepathic message just as the thoughts I had received two years before. This new form of telepathy could be perceived and understood over unlimited distances, knew no boundaries, and could only be blocked by the power of the spirit. This was the first time I heard the expression "telepathy" connected to this form of communication, which could also be perceived from human being to human being over the normal consciousness as well, as, when two years before he spoke of telepathy, he only explained to me about the "mental", not yet the "plain primary" thoughts transmission through the material consciousness block. He then explained to me that the second thought transmissions, were only receivable by me at extremely high frequencies, and that creatures of low levels, which were the earthhuman beings, would not be able to force into me spiritually. This ability was only possible for very highly developed beings, because I was born into life for the performance of a very special mission, and had to be protected against wicked minded thinking and influences of lower and still undeveloped intelligences and beings etc..

The explanations of the priest made sense to me, though he gave me a real start when he explained to me that, my life would become extremely hard, full of suffering and need, which has come true until today. Because of his explanations I was able to overcome my unnecessary fears, and began to continue and encourage the telepathic communications, which in the beginning were only one-sided contacts. I put questions and received answers to them. From that I knew the priest had told me the truth.

By these telepathic contacts with a human form of life, calling himself SFATH, I soon became introduced to knowledges of such large and gigantic thinking which very often seemed to me to be mad. The consequence of this was, that I became almost totally isolated from my environment. I allowed even more wicked intrigues to happen to me than had happened before, but I had no desire to defend myself. Because of this I became the scapegoat for all evil that happened in my village. But I didn't care about this and only silently smiled within myself, even when lies were said about me which I had to suffer very hard for. I often was beaten so badly that I was not able to sit or stand. Because of this I began to miss so much school that things became very hard for me. This didn't disturb me much though, because on the one hand even though I learned a lot in school, during my free time I was becoming more thoroughly and deeply educated by the telepathic contacts with Sfath.

Even though I was absent from school so much, (the "grand total" amounted in the worst year to 173 unexcused absents), quite peculiarly nothing happened from the school administration. On the contrary, there was no interference in these matters, until I had performed all of the school levels with only 6 months to go. Finally then the school administration took action. But these events, which are only a small part of my life, and make up only a part of my history, and shall not be discussed more in detail at this time.

It was then in the year 1944, when Sfath began to contact me telepathically, I was very positive because of the explanations of the priest. Still at this time, I didn't know that the first contact two years ago was to trace back to the same origin, and that the old man who had taken me in that pear shaped flight machine, was Sfath himself. He now began to inform me telepathically that I should prepare myself for a very serious and extremely important mission, and that I would have to decide myself, whether or not I would want to bear the burden of this mission. From his explanations, I was selected before my birth for this mission, and had been under his steady watch and control by him. That this was true, I could know from the fact that at the age of six months I fell ill from a very heavy case of pneumonia with little hope of survival. Late in the night I was visited by Doctor Strebel, who prepared my parents that, within the night I would finish my life. Already laying in a coma and at the point of leaving my earthly life, he Sfath had interfered and brought me back to life.

Of course, I wanted to affirm the story of Sfath, and asked my mother about the events of my babyhood. To my astonishment, she verified Sfath's words and explained, there must have been a "miracle", as there was no hope for my young life. Even doctor Strebel said a "miracle" must have happened, because from his medical examination of the night before I should have been dead in the morning.

Sfath explained to me still innumerable other matters, taught me and gave me informations etc., which I have to keep silent about my whole life. So the time passed until the late summer 1944, when once again I strolled lonely and alone and deep in thoughts through the 'Langenzinggen' of the Hoeragaenwood near Bulach. When I had walked for some time, suddenly Sfath announced himself to me in his now very familiar to telepathic form, and explained, that I should wait a few minutes and not to be afraid. So I just waited and watched to see what would happen. It didn't take very long, within a few minutes there was a silver object racing from the sky, to my understanding it was still a rather strange formation of metal, all ready familiar to me and not greater in diameter than five or six meters. While I stared at the pearlike flightmachine with interest and fascination it came down and touched the ground near to me. I could now see something moving at the side of the object, an opening formed itself and a figure stepped outside. It was a very old man, who was in a rather strange suit, and now slowly appeared to me, just like he did when I first saw him the first time. He now was in a sort of deep sea diving dress, which looked all silver, but the helmet was missing. Yet even though he wore this suit, his appearance seem to me very venerable and wise, and I still have a very good image in my memory that he seemed to me like an old venerable patriarch.

The old man came towards me and spoke, a little awkward, in my mother's language and with the flat dialect used in our village. Evidently he was a bit unfamiliar with it, because he pronounced some syllables incorrectly, which at once stroke me. He explained to me to be Sfath, and that I should come with him now. With little coercion, I followed him, just as I had years before, to the peculiar pearlike object, and was lifted up into the doorway by some unseen force I couldn't recognize. The door closed automatically behind us and Sfath led me through another door to a small room in the middle of the object, where there were 3 unfamiliar chairs and wall and strange desks full of instruments and gears. I noticed some small windows in which strange figures moved. In some of the windows I saw the entire landscape around the performed flight machine. Then Sfath ordered me to sit down while he manipulated some apparatus. I didn't understand what he was doing. In the different small windows I realized that the figures and pictures of the landscape suddenly changed. I suddenly realized the landscape from the birds view. I turned my eyes to Sfath who now sat himself down next to me. He explained, these 'little windows', were no windows, but sight screens, which at the present and in the future would be developed on earth. They were capable of picture transmission by certain energies. He then explained to me that we were very high over the ground, at about seventy kilometer of height. Here we would stay for a few hours, as he had a lot of important information and facts to educate me in. He explained to me that because of his labours my reasoning abilities were all ready that of a 35 year old man. My spiritual development was far beyond the earthly standard, and would explain why nobody would be able to answer my spirit directed questions. (It really was so, as neither the priest nor my then teacher Karl Graf were able to answer my questions. Many of these questions caused my teacher to often try to obtain answers from professors who also could not answer them).

Today it is interesting for me to notice that I felt no fear when Sfath told me that we floated at about 70,000 meters above the earth. I not only was not concerned, but quite the contrary, everything seemed very familiar and quite self-evident to me. In fact I no longer was concerned about Sfath's explanations, and with stoic calm I listened as he told me that he only would care for me until the beginnings of the 1950's and then would hand over this mission to a very much higher form of life, because on the one hand, his time would be coming near to the end, and on the other side, had not enough knowledges to be able to teach me any further. This would be taken over by a much higher form of life, because in the beginning of the 1950's I will have become spiritually evolved to the point that I will have reached his level of knowledge in this respect. Since I was elected for a particular mission, I would have to become very much higher developed, and because of this, become under the care of a much higher intelligence than he.

Further explanations by Sfath were that, the mankind of earth was headed for a very dangerous time, and that the still raging second world war would find its end in the following year 1945, because in the sixth of August 1945 the time would come where the event of Sodom and Gomorrah would repeat itself in all of its malignity, which would be the last consequence of the second world war. (Today it is evident to every human being that this dark prophecy were aimed at Hiroshima and Nagasaki, where in August 6th, 1945 the first atom bomb was dropped, with a second one following soon). Besides this dark prophecy Sfath yet made many other statements, about which he but obligated me to silence for the rest of my life.

Sfath never told me his age, yet I estimate him to be a least 90 to 95 years old. He also never told me his origin and what my mission essentially was. This last matter did not reveal itself until decades later from another source. Until then many things would happen, which would often force me to not only to the edge of delusion, but to the border of my own death. Always I was able to overcome these dangerous situations by my own force, and only in a very few cases was help given to me, of which I know in sureness today, either directly or indirectly from extraterrestrial origin. In the whole I was put fully responsible for myself, and in all actions and doings I had to master all things by myself. From that I learned very much and finally was able to overcome each situation.

The stay with Sfath lasted a little bit more than four hours, during which time he transmitted immense knowledges to me. At the end of the meeting, he ordered me to lean myself back in my chair, he then put a rather comic looking formation of innumerable wires and small instruments around my head. Wondering what this was for, and what might follow now, I looked calmly at him while he manipulated with buttons and switchers, then suddenly I heard and realized even more immense things inside of my mind. At was suddenly in me, immense knowledges, recognitions and many other kind of things. I suddenly felt peculiar forces penetrate into me, and could suddenly realize occurrences and events of the future, I felt I wanted to cure human beings from sickness, and many other things. Then the influence stopped at once, and Sfath removed the strange instruments from my head with the explanation, that now I would own all the abilities, which were given to me by the instrument and those that in earlier times were developed in me. Never would I loose these abilities from this time forward, but I was not allowed to exercise them egoistically or for the purpose of profit or demonstration. The knowledges and talents that had been awakened within me were only allowed to serve for my own evolution and in the performance of my mission. If I was forced to defend myself against an intrusion, then automatically an "implanted fuse" would block everything, and the block would be maintained completely until the danger was gone. This, so he explained, was also valid for scientific tests and other possible powerful influences from outsides, if such were tried for example like hypnosis, to force into my knowledges and abilities. So also in this respect would come to appear the blockade and judge to failing all tries etc. This blockade is so strong, that under certain circumstances it would even be harmful to the life of anyone who tried to penetrate with force. (So indeed this did behave, as in the run of my life I have sometimes noticed).

After these explanations Sfath brought me back to earth, exactly to the point where hours before we had left. He then disappeared again in his performed ship, and I never saw him again. For some years I still noticed his voice when transmitted to my many facts and knowledges. On the 3rd of February his voice dismissed from me. It sounded old and tired. Then it faded away for ever.

Only a few hours had past the growing silence of Sfath's voice, which had become like a part of myself, when a new voice came into head. Just as with Sfath, it was simply at once there and talked to me. Anyhow I felt this new voice to be young and fresh, full of force and quite different then Sfath, namely very soft and harmonic. This new, and within a few minutes very comfortable voice, told me to be a she, and were named ASKET, and she would be my new companion. She became my second contact, and in the course of the following years helped me reach for what seemed to me phenomenal knowledges and cognitions. Because of her and her abilities I was led out for the first time into the far reaches of the world, which I later should journey over for many years, and within a few short years would examine and explore manifold things, and most importantly, to learn them.

"A Search for Truth"

by J. Randolph Winters

It was the summer of 1980, on a warm sunny afternoon in Los Angeles, when I found myself wandering around in a book store next to the UCLA campus filled with tables full of books promising education, adventure, romance, and all at bargain prices. Since I wasn't looking for anything in particular I was easy prey for a "close out" sign protruding up out of pile of books that looked like they had been stirred up in a blender. Always the one to be searching for the unusual I began to push my way through the books looking for something to catch my eye. There were cook books, old text books, some with covers torn off, others with several price reductions and a few still in their plastic wrappers. I was scanning through the pages of the life story of Errol Flynn and dreaming of those great old movies with beautiful women and swashbuckling heros when I glanced down at the table and saw a picture of a UFO hovering over a grassy knoll with some logs laying below it. I thought, this is better, must be a book on special effects from Universal movie studios or something. Funny I didn't recognize the picture as being from any movie I had seen. It was much too clear to be from one of those old movies from the sixties. I opened the book and began to flip through the pages of beautiful *extraordinary photos of flying saucers, taken in broad daylight like I had never seen before. As far as I knew, even the special effects people had nothing this good. I wasn't even reading the captions, I was just racing from page to page devouring the images. When the last page came I was so excited I started racing through the book again, this time carefully reading the captions next to the photos. It seems these photos were all taken in Switzerland by someone named Billy Meier and were supposed to be authentic real photos of "Beamships" from another world. I glanced at the cover of the book for the price to make sure I could afford it and discovered that it hadn't been sold for $39.95 as the publisher had hoped, but was marked down to $19.95. A couple of ID's later the book was mine and I was sitting at home carefully examining each page with a careful eye. "This book is important", I said to myself, I just knew it. As I slowly turned through the pages I became more and more sure that this poor overlooked book from a close out table held some important truths about life from another world. I became obsessed with the book and for days could think of *nothing else. The implications were very serious indeed. Here at last could be proof of existence of life on other worlds. And if this was true then think of what we could learn. I had read every word in the book several times. It seems Meier had the opportunity to have physical contacts with these visitors. They had taken him with them in their ships on many occasions for the specific purpose of educating him on a variety of subjects about life: the Universe, religion, history and science. They even allowed him to ask questions put together by himself and a group of friends of his who seemed also to be involved in the contacts. The book I had answered some of these questions but didn't go into very much detail. I was hungry for more and found myself calling information in Arizona to find the publisher, find the printer, find someone, I had to know more.

It took just a few calls to reach the publishers who were located in a small town in Arizona and turned out to be the actual investigators who had just returned from several months in Switzerland investigating this case. They were very helpful and answered a lot of my questions, offering some new insights into the case. My phone bill was pretty high for awhile as I kept calling and asking more questions. It turned out that Meier had had over 130 meetings with these visitors and had compiled several books out of thousands of pages of notes he had taken. The investigators told me they had put photos through many different kinds of analysis and could find no evidence of a hoax of any kind. They had investigated other witnesses who had seen the ships, some of whom had also taken photos of the ships, they even had been to the sights where the photos were taken and reconstructed the photo scene for computer comparison. Meier had given them metal samples he had received from the off world visitors that was representative of the type their ships were made of for analysis. These metal samples had been turned over to a scientist at IBM named Marcel Vogel, who proclaimed they could identify most of the ingredients of the metal, but not the manufacturing process. It was beyond our technology at the moment and clearly not of this earth and had to have been made in some sort of vacuum process. It seems the investigators were almost losing their own objectivity as they were having trouble finding any reason to doubt Meier's claims. He truly seemed to be having contacts with human visitors from another world.

This other world by the way was a planet just 10% smaller than ours called Erra, located in the Taurus section of the sky in a small cluster of stars known as the Pleiades. Most all of Meier's contacts were with a Pleiadian woman who called herself Semjase. She explained that her people settled in the Plejas, as they called it, over 230,000 years ago and currently lived on 3 planets within their solar system. Their ancestors had come there as a result of wars in their home system and were decedents of a race called Lyrians. She said the Pleiadians themselves had never lived here on earth, but we shared common ancestry as in the past on several occasions the Lyrians had settled on earth. Semjase believed that currently about 1/3 of the population of earth carried the Lyrian genetic. The Lyrians, by the way, were tall blond, blue eyed, white skinned people who stormed through the galaxy with their giant war machines dominating many planets, and leaving there mark wherever they went. Their history dated back 22 million years and was mostly wars and blood shed. The Pleiadians had found peace through the understanding of the Creational laws of the Universe and had hoped to help us, their younger brothers by passing on some of their wisdom. Meier had been chosen as a physical contact since he had acted in a similar capacity in previous lives and could be counted on to perceive and pass on the information in a truthful manner. It seems the Pleiadians and a few other races were kind of keeping an eye on us. They said that Meier's spirit is the oldest on our planet and could be counted on to be helpful and useful to their mission. Their science allowed them to follow a spirit as it went through its life cycles. Reincarnation was not only true but an exact science to them.

Hardly a day went by during the next few years that Meier and his experiences were not on my mind. One book was not enough, I wanted to talk to Meier, read his notes. I had traveled through China, most of the east, 3 trips to the Vatican City, Europe and Japan putting pieces together of our humanity. My quest led me down a lot of trails that always came to the same ending. We just didn't know very much about life yet. We were still stuck on this planet with no one to guide us. History had left us on our own to create several thousands of years of beliefs, religions and cults, which always seemed to lead to war and blood shed.

1984 found me in Rome on business with the hope that I could make a visit to the Meier home. I placed a call to the investigators who were going to try and get me an invitation, and was informed it was not a good time to go. Due to a recent attempt on Meiers life, which left him shaken but ok, the household was noticeably not in the mood for visitors. There had been several attempts over the years, apparently by those who believed he was either a threat to their beliefs, or some kind of maniac. I was becoming more and more intrigued with wanting to meet Billy Meier.

I returned home and spent another two years telling everyone I knew about Billy Meier's experiences. By the courtesy of the investigators I had made a set of slides from my book, which I still carried around, and often had people over to the house for a little slide show. Soon I was renting halls and giving talks all over the city almost every night. I had become the local Billy Meier authority which allowed me to meet thousands of other people who shared my interests. We all wanted to know more. I suppose like everyone else were all searching for meaning to our lives, a purpose for being, an answer to what all of this is. Here, within the Meier information at last was answers, but one book was not enough. It was time to go to Switzerland.

I wrote a letter to Billy and asked if I could visit. I knew in the seventies thousands of people had been to his home. They'd come trampling through the gardens, climbing in the windows and poking around in the garage. Meier's house had become like a tourist information center with people everywhere leaving little or no privacy for him. Visitors would sometimes just walk into his home and start going through the drawers and taking what ever they could. To date Billy has taken over 1300 photos and a lot of 8mm movie footage, hundreds of the photos are already missing or damaged. Unfortunately the ugly American had been there. They had all come, movie people with talk of stardom, magazines and newspapers looking for the story of a century and scientist trying to prove they were right and Meier was a fraud. Billy had made a promise to Semjase to not turn anyone down, he would talk to everyone and tell his story. That promise had not worked out well, as his few appearances in the surrounding towns were met with hostility and anger and Billy found himself being called every name in the book. His precious notes from his extra terrestrial friends had been misquoted and his pictures had been duplicated, stolen or laughed at as being models. It turned out later that the German secret service had even gone so far as to plant models of the Beamships in his garage to make him look ridiculous. The investigators, in their efforts to test the photos, had traveled back to Billy's home with models of the ships they had made. They then shot new photos of their models with Billy's camera and their own. Two models had been made, one of which was a present to Billy and still sets on his desk in his office. The photos were taken back to the lab for examination with the results that the computer caught the models every time. The real photos were examined in a series of tests. Through the use of electron microscopes, laser scanning the film grain was examined for distortion resulting from double exposure, lamination or projection methods. Further testing on lighting angles, shadows and edge focus were done to check for overlays and paste-ups. Edge and image enhancements were done to reveal any suspicious lines or wires that may have been used. A microdensitometer was used to analyze the film grain for possible overlapping film crystals, which eliminated the possibility of dark room techniques or film overlays. Additionally, Z-scale Contour and Z-scale Density average tests confirmed the craft to be a large, three dimensional object. As a surprise while experimenting with special emission scanning techniques, unusual "energy" fields were found in a photo surrounding the area of the ship and still another test revealed supernormal light distortion properties around the ship in a photo under certain ranges of the light spectrum. It seems we could now detect the energy coming off of the Beamships. Unfortunately this information never got out to the general public, but instead some of the pictures that had been taken of the models fell into the wrong hands and were released by those who didn't like Billy, as being a means to reveal him as a faker. Here was a man who had traveled to other worlds, seen other civilizations and who had the pleasure of hours of conversations with people from another world, and he couldn't get anyone to listen. Frustrated and dejected by a society who apparently didn't want to hear the truth, Billy decided to close his doors. No more visitors. His home life had all but been ruined, he had no privacy, his health was poor and he barely had enough money to live on. Not able to hold down a job anymore, since he was the local "star man", Billy now lived on his farm with a few other people who believed in him, they had formed a group called the FIGU and lived together to help Billy with his books and get their own education.

My letter was finally answered, it was ok for me to come for a visit. So with my bags packed I headed out to Zurich. A couple of train rides later found me in Schmidruti, the home of Billy Meier. When I arrived I was escorted to the guest patio in front of the house where several members of the FIGU began to tell me all about the latest group of Americans who had taken Billy's material and used it for their own profit. There was a lot of anger and frustration as it seemed they had been disappointed again by someone who had made promises and not kept them. Americans it seemed, at least the ones who had come to Schmidruti, were turning out to be materialistic and greedy, and showed little interest in his knowledge and his books. It was the pictures that caused the great interest, everyone wanted to make a movie, a video or write a book, and all with their own views and attitudes mixed in. It wasn't important that Billy was the mediator to the Pleiadians and we had a chance to learn something, there just seemed to be more interest in trying to make some money out of it. Now don't get me wrong, I try just as hard as the next guy to make a buck. I realize we live in a world which revolves around the dollar, and you just can't get much done in this world unless you play the game. But in some areas perhaps we have allowed common sense to turn into greed.

My stay for 3 weeks was disappointing in that I couldn't meet Billy. He was upset with America and apparently was suspicious of me and wasn't in the mood for someone else with a lot of questions. I spent my 3 weeks working around the farm during the day, and at night I was allowed to ask questions of the other people who lived there, and at last I was allowed to see the notes. I had already seen some of the notes before I came over, but not like this. I became friends with several of the people there and they began to share their stories with me. They talked of seeing the ships over the house, one person had even watched as Billy disappeared when he was taken up into the ship. One of the members, who had driven Billy to a contact and was waiting for his return, had been shaken up when Billy materialized out of thin air right in front of her. These were the people who were getting the knowledge, not the public. Billy kept to himself now and for years he had stayed at home with his friends, away from the ridicule of the public. There were books here on science, how the Universe was created, the life cycles of man, the Spiritual laws of the Creation we live in, and much more. All in all there was close to 10,000 pages of notes put into books on many subjects which I studied every night until I fell asleep. At last here was information so logical, so rational, so truthful that I found myself captivated by my thirst for knowledge, and quite often watched the dark of night say hello to the light of morning.

Proof comes to all of us in different forms, and for those looking to validate Billy's claims and only being mildly acquainted with him through the few things written about him so far, you have to pretty much rely on the photos to make up your mind. But here in Schmidruti, is the real truth, the books, the information given to us by another race of human life that is far more advanced than us. Among these books is one called the Prophecies. The Pleiadians arranged for Billy to receive transmissions from the highest of spiritual sources, the name Petale was given to this spiritual level for identification only. From this information the Prophecy book was written by Billy which tells us about how we are creating our future. The book was copywritten in 1975 and contains information about Earth, primarily from 1980 up past the turn of the century. Very few dates are given as the Pleiadians use what they call an "event clock" to measure things. You see, the future, unlike the past, isn't a fixed thing, but is a projection of how things will happen based on the present, or now. If you do nothing about now, and allow things to go along on their own, the future will go pretty much as it is projected. If however you take responsibility for yourself and control your future if can be ever changing. For the Pleiadians their science has advanced to a point where they have discovered what the energy of "Time" is, and can travel using this knowledge to visit other time frames, something which at the moment seems almost impossible to us, but is well within their grasp. As a matter of fact, without this capability they would not even be visible to us since they live in a different time and space than we do. They do not live in the Pleiades we see in the sky, but a Pleiades of a different time pulse separated by a different space. They actually make a shift of some kind so we can perceive them. There say there is also a way of seeing or thinking the future during meditation, if you know how to do it. These messages from the future will come to you in a code or symbol, and you must know how to interpret them. This book, the Prophecies projects our future on Earth as it was in the year 1975. How accurate are they? Unfortunately very. But first let me tell you a few of the predictions that have already happened.

In Billy's conversation notes, which span his early years beginning in 1956 with an extra terrestrial named Asket, he was given some prophecies which he had to keep quiet about for many years so as not to upset the natural course of history. Asket explained that the events of the future have to take place in their natural sequence, so care must be taken to not damage the future by revealing information which would disturb the natural order. On March 2nd, 1956, in a conversation with Asket, she revealed the following predictions to Billy, which were written down, copywritten and put away for years. These writings still exist, as a matter of fact I have a copy of them, and attest to the validity of Billy's contacts and the ability of the extra terrestrials to understand the science of Time.

Askets Projections

Asket explained the political events of the future had been set in motion by the poisoning of Joseph Stalin on May 3rd, 1953. This event had just happened and was used to reference how one event would lead into another. She told Billy the next Russian leader, Nikita Sergejewitsch Chruschtschow would be dismissed in the year of 1964. In America a new president named Fitzgerald Kennedy would be murdered in 1963. The date of his death would be November 22, 1963. She said a second political murder would follow 5 years later when in Los Angeles on June 6, 1968 his brother Robert Kennedy would be killed. Also in 1962 Pope John XXIII would die from a poison that disappears from the body very rapidly. His successor Pope Paul VI will also be poisoned, by order of the cardinals of Rome, in cooperation with Jewish extremists. In Greece King Paul I will die from poison on June 3rd, 1964. His succes-or will be named Constantinos, who will exploit the nation and will be exiled by a military regime. In Egypt in 1965 Emir from Kuweit will die, as will Abd el Gamal Nasser in the 70's. The King of Saudi Arabia, King Feisal will be shot in the year 1975. All of these predictions were explained more in detail than I have time for here, but serve the purpose of understanding the value of how we have to learn to control our future.

This chain of political deaths had served to shape the future of our world. As they have all come to pass as told, and can be verified in Billy's writings since 1964, we can see the accuracy of our ET friends abilities. These prophecies were all about political assassinations. Our future also revolves around the next coming war and the damage we have done to our planet. For the events which will happen we can look into the Prophecy book and get a look at where we are going based on now. Remember the future is not fixed but is only a projection from a fixed point. The purpose of future predictions is to warn us of the future we are causing to happen, it does not have to happen this way. Once we quit waiting for someone else to create our future for us, once we stop relying on a god, a myth or some religious leader who will save us, and learn to take 100% responsibility for ourselves and our future, we can create the kind of peace we all want. It won't come any other way.

THE FUTURE

The book of prophecies is over 100 pages long and deals with many subjects including the Anti Christ, earthquakes and political problems which include Jimmy Carter and Ronald Reagan. The Pleiadians said that Reagan would be the man who through his deeds will accomplish everything in a way that the old prophecies of the Bible will come to pass and bring us closer to the next war. He will be too aggressive and bent on solving everything through military force and rearmament. Remember these forecast were made and documented in 1975.

In New York a man by the name of John Lennon will be killed with a gun in the 2nd week of December by a religious fanatic who suffers from delusions brought on by religious heresy.

Other events surrounding the planet Earth are as follows. In Italy the volcano Vesuvius will erupt and will be a signal that the third world war is imminent and hard to avert. The eruption will be caused by all of the negative energy in Rome. No where else on the planet is there as much negative and hostile energy as there is coming from the Vatican state. The Earth people should know that even though the papacy talks of peace, they have been the major cause of death and suffering on the planet for two thousand years. Even though the volcano Vesuvius is closer to Naples, the main activity of the volcano is very deep under the city of Rome.

For 2000 years we have read the prophecies of the Anti Christ in the Bible. Here is what the Pleiadians have to say. He will be born to a devoted woman of God in an inconspicuous place around sunrise during the 7th hour, brought to the east where he is to starve to death. He is saved and taken in by an evil one who knows who he is. He comes into his own personal power at the age of 11 and surrounds himself with like-minded people for 8 years. He will first appear as a follower of Jesus Christ but will soon place himself above God. His rain of terror will last for 27 years at a loss of 2/3 of the life on our planet. In appearance he will look identical to Jesus, a drawing of his likeness has even been provided by the Pleiadians. During the 27 years of war, most of Europe will perish and many new diseases caused by the decaying bodies will fester. We will see the end of The British Empire as we know it, and China will invade and take over India. As the Anti Christ invades Italy, the Pope will be go into hiding for years as Christianity all but disappears. Earthquakes such as we have never seen from the very core of the planet will erupt and change our atmosphere to smoke and debris. Deep in the Peruvian jungles, giant warriors who were the old enemies of the Incas, will appear from their hiding place, a deep tunnel in the Earth. In Peru a severe earthquake in Udine from deep within the Earths core. America and its Islands are named as suffering from the great smoke from the planets core. Great fires in Japan, Arabia, China and India. The prophecies state that much of the earthquake activity is caused by our atomic explosions and the robbing of the planets oil and gases. There are many of us who are aware of how we are ruining our planet and must make an even greater effort to motivate others to do their part to save our planet before its too late. If we are to avert some of the planetary disasters we must stop the under ground testing and the robbing of our natural resources.

Back to Schmidruti

I returned to Schmidruti the next year and stayed for most of the summer.

This time I didn't stay at the guest house, but was invited to stay on the property in a guest mobile home. Billy and I became friends and spent a lot of time together, by day I worked on translating his books into English, and at night we would have some great conversations which taught me a lot. I discovered a man whose knowledge seem to have no limits. My school became the kitchen table where I would sit, talk and ask questions about many different subjects. Never failing, he would always answer my questions without prejudice or emotional attachment. He seemed to have the ability to know just what I needed to know at any time. Quite often before I would even ask a question he would already be smiling, ready with the answer. There was a point where I thought I was just a fast learner, but I soon discovered that Billy had the understanding of what logic is and how and when to tell you what you need to know. You see if you get the right information just when you are ready for it, you assemble the knowledge quickly and form new rational logic patterns. If you are not ready for information it generally will just get put away somewhere in the back of your mind where you will attach your attitudes and viewpoints to it, maybe even some emotional views or anger will taint the information. Billy told me stories of his travels to other worlds and how he had felt when he was allowed to visit one of the Pleiadian Motherships for several days. He still has many photos of the Mothership and other worlds which he no longer will offer to the people. He has been made fun of so much by an ignorant public, that he now waits for a better time when we are ready for the information, then perhaps we will treat it better.

Among the most fascinating information I learned was about the spread of human life throughout our galaxy. We are confined to our planet and can only guess about what lies beyond our solar system. Billy has seen some of it and the Pleiadians have told him about a lot more. Among his books is a 2 volume set called the Genesis which contains the knowledge of our Universe. In short our Universe is far older and larger than our scientist realize. A longer explanation can be read in the Genesis but in summary our Universe, which is called the Creation by the Pleiadians, is 47 trillion years old. The shape of the Creation is similar to an egg and if a cross section of it could be revealed it would show that it is divided into different sections or belts separated by bands of energy, similar to what a tree trunk looks like. The outside energy belt of our Creation is called a Push belt and serves as a protective layer as it pushes against the adjoining Creations and separates us. Each section has a different purpose, as for instance the section which we live in is called the Material belt and is the only section of the Creation where there is material life. The other belts are of non-material or spiritual matter, the center being the greatest source of Creational energy. The Creation is currently expanding and will continue to do so for some time. Its life span will be 311,040,000,000 years when it will have contracted back into itself and go into a sleep stage. It will then expand again on a larger scale and go through another cycle only longer and bigger. There are 7 cycles of expansion, contraction and sleep, then our Creation will change its form and become what is called an UR Universe which will continue the same cycles, but without a material belt, as its function is to create other Creational Universes like the one we live in. Only Creational Universes have the material belt. When our Universe was created a twin Universe was also created right next to us which is called the Dal Universe by the Pleiadians. It is identical to ours and supports human life just as we know it. It is the cycle of expansion and contraction, awake and sleep that forms the logic after which human life is patterned. During our material lives we follow the same pattern as the Creation, we have the daytime or awake period, and then we contract or sleep at night. When our material lives come to an end our spirit sleeps and prepares for another material life to continue its growth. You see, we are all spiritual beings with an everlasting life span, going through a series of material lives in order to grow through the process of feeding truth to our spirit. It is the material lives that gather the information through our many senses, sight, touch, feel etc.. The purpose of the material life is learning, that's why we all have this yearning to search for Truth. Fortunately it is only possible to feed your spirit Truth as the Spirit can not be illogical or sick, only the material is capable of that. The reason for this is that your spirit is always connected to, and is a part of, the Creation which serves as a source of Truth for us. The Creation is also constantly growing through learning, and we all contribute to that, which is why we all have a responsibility to each other and to the overall growth of the Creation.

"the future, unlike the past, isn't a fixed thing, but is a projection of how things will happen based on the present"

Remember even though you do not know the answers to everything, they do exist, we are not creating new knowledges, they already exist, we are just discovering them. This means that you go through material life, searching and learning, and your spirit is listening to everything, but it only takes in what is Truth according to Creation. This protects your Spirit from becoming illogical and sick. You must also realize that only you are capable of feeding Truth to your Spirit, no one else can do this for you. You are totally responsible for your own spiritual growth. This also means many of us go through a material life cycle and because we live such untruthful lives we add almost nothing to our Spirit. This is called spiritual stagnation. There is no new information being fed to the spirit when your material life has passed. This is a sleep stage much like the normal sleep you will have tonight where you cogitate or finish out the things you have learned. You return to material life when you are ready and begin a new personality with new opportunities for growth. You see, our life cycles emulate the same growth pattern that the Creation is going through. Once we have a better understanding of the logic of Creation we will better see the relationship of how our life cycles work.

In our galaxy, which we call the Milky Way, there were originally over 44 million planets which evolved human life as we know it. Currently there are over 7.5 billion planets with 343 different forms of the human body living on them. The Pleiadians have come in contact with 1,800,000 of them. Our planet is visited every year by about 3000 ships, most of which only pass by and have very little interest in us. There are also other types of non-human life forms in our galaxy and throughout the Universe, some of which also come here. Billy was told about a race from a set of twin planets called Zeta Reticuli that have on some occasions abducted humans for experimenting. The Pleiadians have communicated with this race on our behalf to stop the abductions. We have also been warned that there are other races both human and non-human who are quite malicious by our standards and would quickly take over our planet. Billy was told that the probability is very high that the planet Earth will soon face the reality of defending ourselves from attackers from other worlds. It is not clear whether or not the Pleiadians or other races would help defend us. Apparently they have in the past, and do maintain a certain surveillance over our planet. However, they have stated that they are not allowed to intervene in our Political or power structure on their own. They belong to a council or federation of planets which forbids them from interfering in our right of freewill. It seems as a planet we must make a choice of aligning ourselves with them and other peaceful races in order to get their help. If we choose to align ourselves with other non-peaceful races they will not come to our aid.

There is evidence to support the idea that our government has already aligned itself with a hostile race in order to gain knowledge for weapons and power. If this turns out to be true, it could be the warning the Pleiadians have given us, and would prevent them from coming to our aid.

One night, about midnight, after I had been at Billy's home for about 6 weeks, I was walking down the road toward the house and noticed one of the FIGU members named Englebrecht standing in front of the house. He motioned to me to come over and watch the sky. It was a beautiful night high in the hills of Switzerland, clear skies with a million stars painted against a black canvas. Englebrecht does not speak very good English, but he motioned for me to stand and watch the sky where he was pointing. He motioned on his watch for me to just wait a few minutes, which I did. In just a few minutes he raised his hand and pointed toward the Eastern sky. I shifted my view to where he was pointing and there it came, rising up from the horizon, a streak of white light moving at a very fast rate. It climbed up steadily and then leveled off and began to race across the night sky in front of us. It was a steady stream of white light moving considerably faster than anything else I have seen in the sky. Kind of like a shooting star but rising up instead of falling. Then it took a slight turn and kind of bent right up into the sky and began to blend in with the stars. I was just standing there in amazement when Englebrecht turned to me and said "Quetzal". That was the name of one of the Pleiadian pilots who frequently visited Billy. He was apparently leaving the base the Pleiadians still have in Switzerland, and who knows where he was going. I had just seen my first Identifiable Flying Object. Now it was true for me also.

In a couple of days I left Schmidruti and returned home to America. During that trip Billy and I made a deal to open an office here to get his books translated and out to the public. It will take some time as there a lot of books, but at least we have them. Some of the books will be ready in a few months. The knowledge I have gained from the books and from Billy I have put on Audio and Video tapes so people can learn for themselves.

If the Pleiadians have a single purpose in helping us it's to give us this simple truth to live by: We are living through a series of material lives in order to learn and feed our spirit with truth. This is necessary for the spiritual growth of not only the Creation we live in, but it is the only way we ourselves can grow. It is the meaning of our lives. The food our spirit lives on is called the Truth.

In ancient Lyrian tongue there is a phrase used for meditation. Saalome gam naan ben uurda gan neeber asaala hesporoona. This translates to mean, "Peace in Wisdom to the planet Earth and all beings of the Creation". So to you, my friends, in search of your own truth, Saalome.

HOUSE RULES

A Visit to the SemJase Silver Star Center

Since 1975 when Eduard "Billy Meier began his contacts with the extra terrestrials from the star system known as the Pleiades, people from all over the world have been inspired to meet an visit with him. Just to locate Billy isn't easy, since he lives in a small remote area about an hour outside of Zurich Switzerland. His home is a rural farm where he lives and works with his friends, a group called the F.I.G.U., which is a German Acronym for "Free Community of Interests in the Border and Spiritual Sciences and UFO Studies". In the 70's Billy's home was visited by thousands of people from all over the world. Billy and his family tried to be good hosts to all visitors, but that's not easy to do, and as the years went by a natural desire for some privacy and peace of mind have led Billy to restrict visitors. A lot of time must be spent taking care of the farm, as well as the work that goes on in respect to his writings. It is still possible to visit his farm, which is called The Semjase Silver Star Center, but it is necessary to write for permission to visit and to observe the fact that this is Billy's home and to respect his privacy.

If you are interested in visiting the "Center", you may write to Billy showing your interest and why you would like to visit. Try to remember they do not have time for everyone, but are always interested in making new friends with those who come with love and understanding.

If you write, try to make your letters in German if you can, and do not expect a quick reply, as they receive a lot of letters and only have so much time to answer. You must also bear in mind that they speak German. Billy speaks a little English as well as some of the others, but do not expect a lot of long conversations.

There are no guest facilities at the "center", so you must make arrangements in nearby Wila, where there is a hotel. There is however a guest house close to the center where you can expect bed and breakfast for about $12 a day. This is a very rustic and old roadside house with very pleasant people running it, but who speak no English.

Billy has built a guest patio in front of the house for greeting people. There you may look through his photo books, sign his guest book and ask questions. Usually Billy's wife, Kalliope will greet visitors and help you with the books and flyers. Do not expect to meet Billy as it has been some years since he greets guests.

The following list of "House Rules" were written by Billy for those who wish to visit, and provide an understanding for visitors to adapt to the way of life at the center.

If you wish to stay at the local roadside guest house ("Freihof") for a few days, you can ask for permission to work at the farm, where there is usually always something to do in the garden or the fields. Once you arrive at the center and have visited the guest patio, if you wish to offer your services, ask if you can help out around the center. You will usually be ask to come back in the morning around 9:00 a.m. and meet Silvano at the guest patio. Silvano is in charge of daily chores around the center. He speaks some English and is a real charming man.

Here then are the House rules:

HOUSE RULES

HOUSE RULES

When you are visiting the Semjase Silver Star Center please adhere to the following house rules. If you have already visited the center before then these rules will be familiar to you.

1. If you are willing to lend a hand around the farm, do not be shy. Let us know since we need all of the help we can get.
2. When you work at the center and help out with the work, you do this of your own free will and on your own accord and understand that there is no compensation.
3. We are not in the position to compensate your efforts with money, natural goods, foods or beverages, because of the ever higher rising costs of living and the Government laws. The farm does not provide us with enough money to live on. You can stay in the local guest house for about $12 American dollars per day. This will be for room and board.
4. While visiting the Semjase Silver Star Center you are expected to be self sufficient as far as food and drink. These things may be obtained from the guest house. It is forbidden by Swiss law to pay visitors or guests any compensation for his or her work at the center, unless you are not a member of the family or relative of the F.I.G.U.. According to the law we are not a guest house or hotel.
5. If you are carrying your own food from a backpack, it is forbidden for you to prepare meals in the kitchen of the center. Government regulations for the prevention of water pollution and the executive council of the Canton of Zurich don't allow this, because this can cause more water pollution.

For long term and short term visitors who are not members of the family, relatives or FIGU members who are living outside of the center, invited guests or other special guests, the following is valid:

HOUSE RULES

"Room and board is always to be found outside of the Center, in the "Freihof" (guest house) in Schmidruti, or in any other suitable guesthouse, if there is no self catering from ones backpack in the Center area.

There are no rooms at the center for eating and drinking. So, if you are self catering it must be outside in the open air someplace, such as the garden patio, or the resting place in the nature preserve.

6. The mobile trailers at the Center are not to be used for eating, drinking or sleeping over night. This is restricted by Governmental law except in those cases where permission is obtained from the Government for member of the family and FIGU members. If you wish to camp out or use the barbecue facilities this is allowed from time to time. This means that each person is only allowed 1 holiday per year (in case of divided holidays, 2 times per year). Longer stays, by Governmental regulations, must be in a guesthouse or hotel.

We are not a HOLIDAY RESORT

Each member of the group, living in the Center are doing the daily chores in the Center along with the daily work for themselves and the Center, and to maintain the mission in life and to build it further.

BYSTANDERS are not permitted in the Center !

8. Long term and short term visitors who are loitering and who do not wish to help out around the Center cannot be tolerated. It is also strictly forbidden to give access to the Center buildings and premises. Visitors who are loitering are asked to leave the Center area as soon as possible.

9. Please pay attention to the following most important rule:

Billy is not to be approached by visitors unless explicitly invited by him. If Billy is sitting on his porch or just walking around the farm, he should be left alone in peace, since he either has a problem to solve, or is contemplating about the work of his and of all Center dwellers mission, or he just wants some time to himself.

HOUSE RULES

Although visitors are always cordially welcome, if you do not observe this rule, we will have to ask you to leave the Center immediately.

10. If you would like to offer your help with the work around the farm for some days or even weeks, then the Center dwellers will enjoy and appreciate this. We cannot offer you money or food and board, which is stated under sections 2 - 4.

We recommend you ask for room and board at the guesthouse, "FREIHOF", in Schmidruti, where you can eat, drink and sleep at very reasonable rates.

11. Special visiting hours can be arranged only for such visitor, which are coming from abroad more the 1000 km (about 800 miles), calculated from the Center. For instance: Lubeck, Kiel, Flensburg, London, Rennes, Nates, Gerona, Sardinien, Rome, Split, Budapest, Ostrava, Breslau, Berlin, Amsterdam, USA, Australia, Africa, Asia, such as Japan.

12. Trespassing on Center buildings and premises, like the kitchen, bathroom, shower and restrooms etc. is strictly forbidden for persons who don't live in the Center, this is only for members of the family, relatives, or out of the Center living members of the FIGU, invited guests or other dignified guests.

13. Restrooms, bathrooms, shower and kitchen areas cannot be used under any circumstances. Look to item 5, second part.

14. The following Center group members will help out visitors in various capacities.

During the week days the following members help out:

- Kalliope and Eva....Purchase of books and writings.
- Kalliope.....Magazine subscription.
- Eva.....Subscriptions of Spiritual lessons and I.D.
- Silvano.....Allocation of work around the Center in accordance with Jakobus.

THE BOOKS of Eduard "Billy" Meier.

Born Eduard Albert Meier, in Bulach Switzerland in the year 1937, "Billy", as he later became called, lived with his parents in this small village which was surrounded by the hysteria of Hitler's call to arms. As the world was going crazy with anger and hostility, a young "Billy" had been caused to be born with the hope that through this spirit some peace may find its way into this savage world. His spirit, procreated by a race of human beings from the star system known as The Pleiades, is the oldest and most evolved on our planet. It was no accident that "Billy" was brought into the world at this time. A race who now lives in peace, The Pleiadians wisely surveyed the problems our world is facing and chose to help us, their younger brothers and sisters through common ancestry, by providing us with the knowledge and wisdom they have gained through the ages. In order for their message to be understood, and to be passed on in a truthful manner, untainted by the cloud of ego, power and greed that most men live by, they choose "Billy" to perceive their words and to pass them on to us. Since June 2nd of 1942 "Billy" has been in contact with many different extraterrestrials who have helped, guided and taught him in many different areas of knowledge. Most importantly they have awakened the insightful knowledge stored within "Billy's" spirit and allowed him to perceive our world with the clarity and logic that is necessary for the spiritual growth our world needs.

The following list of books are all written by Billy and represent thousands of pages of insightful knowledge on a variety of different subjects, all important to the growth of our world. These books are all available in the German language spoken by Billy. Many of these books are currently being translated into English in the hope they will be available for sale soon. The book list is presented here with the descriptions provided by Billy for your edification. A treasure of knowledge, peace and enlightenment are in store for you. We are happy to be able to offer these books to you for your pleasure and growth.
